[A.R. Frey + E. Froissard were the subjects of a dispute with the Chapmans which this language was helping them resolve.]

Letter only.

CUSTOMS SERVICE,
OFFICE OF THE COLLECTOR,

NEW YORK, N. Y.,

July 28, 1903.

Mr. Henry Chapman,
1348 Pine Street,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

I am in receipt of your letter of July 22, further in reference to your claim against one Frossard, in which you state that Mr. A. R. Frey, a clerk in the Seventh Division of this office, was a partner of Frossard.

I beg to state that Mr. Frey positively denies he is a partner of Frossard, or is carrying on his business, or that he is in any way responsible for Frossard's indebtedness to your sons' firm. The claim which has been made against Mr. Frey is, I understand, on the part of your sons who carry on the business as numismatists. Mr. Frey states that their attorney, a lawyer of this city, who, of course, is familiar with all the facts, has never made any claim against him (Frey) or stated that he was involved in the transaction in any way.

Therefore, in the absence of any proof, and in the face of his positive denial, I do not see that I can, with propriety, take any action in the matter.

Yours respectfully,

N. N. Krumpholtz

Collector.

Mr. Henry Chapman.

1348 Pine St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Sir:

Your favor of the 29th inst. with enclosure duly recd.

I still think we shall be able to collect. but it may take a little time. When I locate Frossard, as I surely will, I shall proceed to make it pretty warm for him.

I return herewith letter from the Collector of the Port of New York.

My entire proceeding in the Court was on the theory that the purchaser was Frossard and that Frey was an agent - and I used an affidavit made by the latter. Under the circumstances, therefore,
Mr. Frey can easily clear his skirts: you know
I advised you that I did not consider Mr. Frey legally responsible for the debt because he did not guarantee the debt in writing - which is an absolute necessity in case you want to look to the guarantor.

I may be in Philadelphia in the course of a few days when I shall take pleasure in stopping in to see you.

Very respectfully,

Mr. A. R. Frey,

Dear Sir:-

Your favor of the 29th of February with $10 cash and $2.50 returns received and we have been desirous of chasing the elephant ever since. We found it a difficult and laborious business as every series had to be looked into. We send herewith such as we have been able to find. We can send you a copy of Atkins Tokens for $5 and paying Lincoln 18 shillings with postage and 25% duty, it will cost you more.

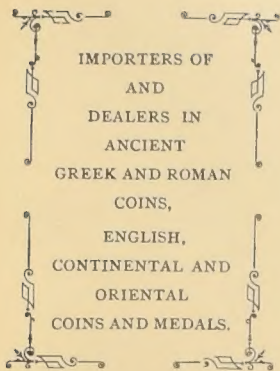

We had 12 other coins with elephant reverses picked out for you and found after the bill was made out that you had them. We did not notice the list at first. Have you a tetradrachm and drachm of Seleucos I with elephant quadriga on reverse. This we have, also Pidcocks, R Rhinoceros, Gold Coast 1 ackey 1818.

Dear Sirs -

Your favors have both reached me & I wish to thank you for the trouble you have taken regarding the elephant coins.

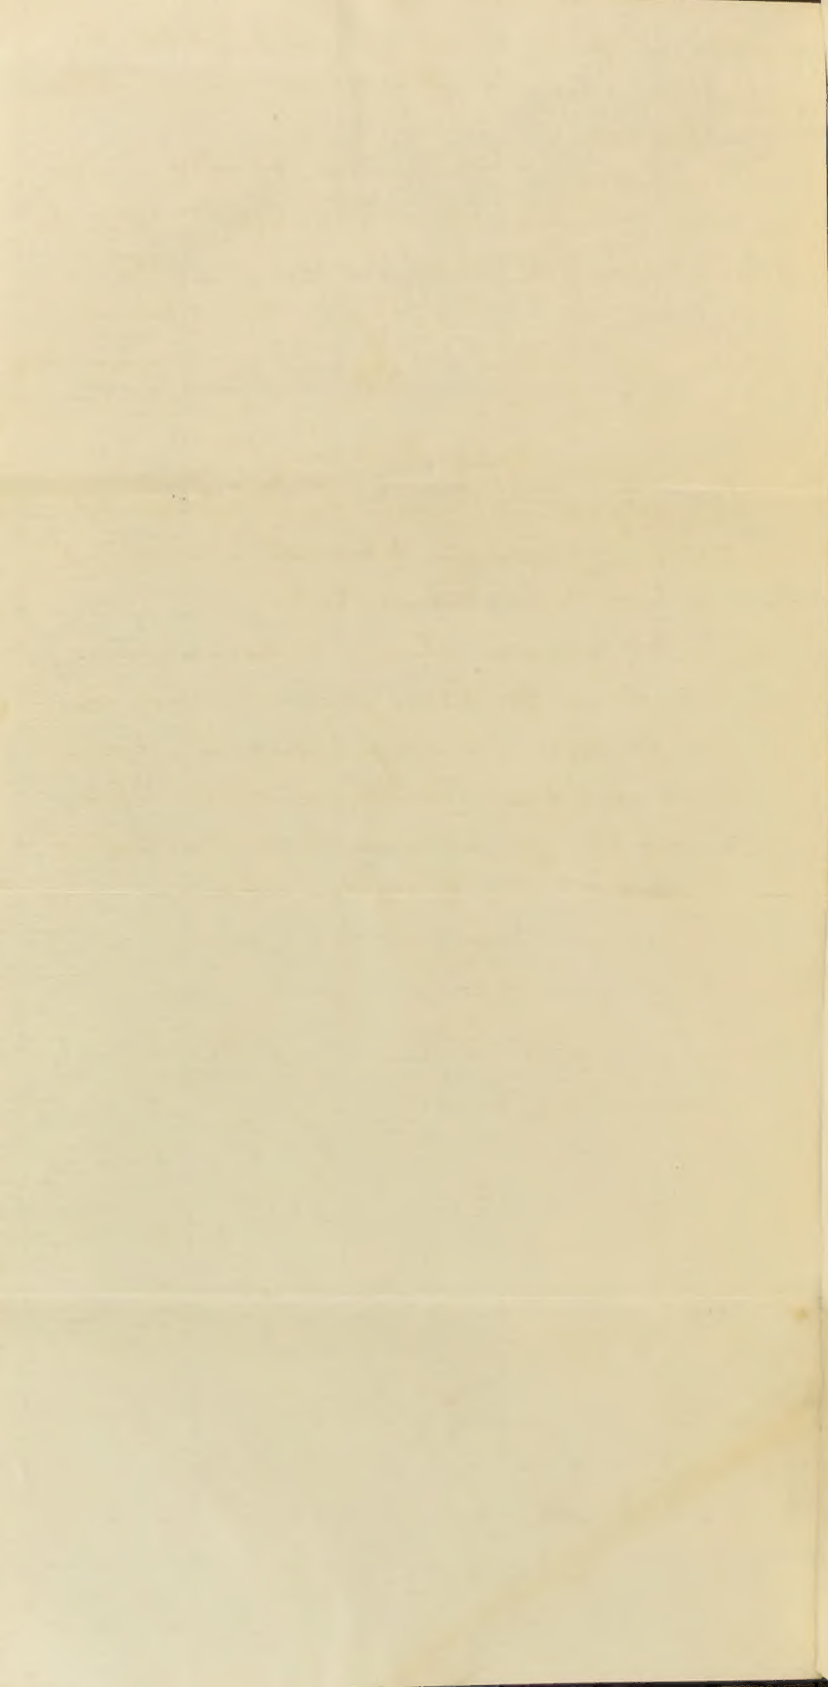

Unfortunately, however, the majority of the coins you sent have simply an elephant's skin covering a human head, which is not exactly what I desire. The only three pieces which are distinctively elephant types I have accepted, to wit:

Nov. 8, 11, & 12 (as per list enclosed),
amounting to $4.05

Enclosed	$2.00
To my credit before	2.34	4.34
		Cr. me .29

Which I trust you will find correct.

I wish that you would send me the two coins of Seleucus I. on approval, unless they are very expensive pieces. I could also use a double paisah of Mysore, i.e.

with elephant surmounted by a square flag + Hindoo inscription on reverse.

There are a number of Danish silver coins, (the majority quite common) which bear on the reverse an elephant suspended from a ribbon  something like this. If you have any of these, I would also like to see them.

The Affghan medal, Pidcock's, Country, Siam, & Gold Coast, I have about complete.

I also wish that when you are writing to Lincoln or any of your London correspondents, you would import Atkins' book for me, at $5.⁰⁰. If you have a copy on hand I will take that.

Yours very truly,
A. R. Frey.
